Public Comment

Mr. Kozel gave an update on Shore Regional Health plans

Portia Johnson Ennals, 615 Pine Street – There was a problem with the boiler in February and they did not find out until May, the electric bill was higher than normal. The Empowerment Center will accept $800 of it but feels the city should reimburse the rest. Odie stated that repairs started within two weeks of being notified $2,662.49 is the amount they are requesting.

Michael Wheatley stated that budget(s) are a hard thing – but he is okay with the increase.

Allen Nelson of the Rotary Club spoke on Flags for Heroes Project. Mr. Nelson also spoke about the Power Boat Regatta event May 16-18, Mr. Nelson wants to utilize the street next to the hospital. A motion from Commissioner Rideout, seconded by Commissioner Hanson. Approval 5-0

Theresa Stafford, spoke of Greenwood Avenue spoke of people congregating on the property, loitering on the property, she stated that the tenants are afraid. Ms. Stafford is asking that the police assist in this situation. Commissioner Sydnor asked about the camera's in that area, he also stated that he would be willing to meet with the property manager/security service. Chief Lewis stated that he has met with both management and the security representative and feels that some of the issues will be resolved going forward. Commissioners Sydnor, Rideout, Cannon to work with Chief of Police, Mark Lewis.

A letter was read on behalf of Kay and Rich Kefler, of 103 Choptank Avenue regarding the Mill Street School property. They suggested tearing the old building and building houses similar to houses already on Mill Street. The Kefler's are not interested in changing the zoning.

Charlie Johnson, of 102 Mill Street spoke about the proposed development not being in line with the existing neighborhood.

Carolyn Sharp, spoke about children in some parts of the city (Moore's Avenue, Cornish Drive) who are playing in the streets and lying in the streets where cars are passing through. This matter was referred to the Traffic Safety Committee. Motion by Commissioner Foster, seconded by Commissioner Rideout.

John Wemple, of 706 Locust Street, spoke on Mill Street property getting an estimate to see how much it would cost to fix the school. He also spoke of proposed profitability of (apartments, and single-family homes).
